

NEGRO'S WOUND PROVED FATAL.
A ROCKLAND COUNTY FARMER WANTED BY THE AUTHORITIES ON A CHARGE OF MANSLAUGHTER.

The authorities of Nyack are looking for Alexander Hustis, a well-known farmer of Slatkewtown, Rockland County, who, if found, will be arrested on a charge of manslaughter. On Saturday last Philip Daniel, a young colored man of Nyack, went to Hustis's farm, where he had been working. Daniel went into a small shed, and as he came out he was met by Hustis, armed with a shotgun. Hustis asked the colored man what he was doing in the shed, and he replied that he went in after a rope. "You did not," replied Hustis; "you came to steal my chickens." Hustis then fired. Hustis went into the house and jumped to the barn, where he was found at daylight.

The negro was taken to his home in Nyack, and in the afternoon he was removed to New York City. Hustis was arrested, and in $100 bail for Justice W. H. Christie held him in $100 bail for examination.

On Wednesday Daniel died in the hospital. Officer Charles Stedman has since been hunting for Hustis. Hustis's friends say he will prove that Daniel was on his property to steal chickens when he shot him.

LAST DAY FOR A MISSING POLICEMAN.

IF HE DOESN'T RETURN THIS AFTERNOON HE WILL BE DROPPED FROM THE ROLLS.

If Policeman Charles Stedman, of the West Thirtieth-st. station, does not report for duty at 6 o'clock this afternoon, he will be dropped from the rolls. The five days' limit allowed by law for a policeman's absence from duty without leave is up at that hour.

After receiving his pay with the rest of the policemen last Monday, Stedman disappeared, and has not been seen since. Just before Captain Chapman was removed from the Tenderloin, Stedman was indicted by the Grand Jury for assaulting Charles Stedman at 11 a. m. on Oct. 22. Stedman's studio Schloss was in his custody. Schloss tried to light a cigarette, and Stedman knocked out several of his teeth.

Stedman was suspended for a month for the assault, and he was told that he and his wife were compelled to break up house-keeping. She went to work in Wanamaker's dry-goods store, and was borrowed from his friends. Stedman, with $600 in his pocket, was restored to duty. His disappearance now is believed to be due to his financial entanglement.

ELLEN PECK GOES TO JAIL.

Ellen Peck, who has been called the "Queen of Confidence Women," was sentenced to five years in prison by Judge Cowling, in Part II of the Court of General Sessions yesterday. Mrs. Peck, who is seventy-three years old, was convicted last week of stealing $200 worth of jewelry from Christopher Ginn, of No. 31 East Twentieth-st. She got the good under the impression that she wanted to present them to her daughter, giving as security a worthless bond.
